

The best of Agrigento in 3 days

THE SKY SUITE SAN LEONE MINI-GUIDE

Three days among ancient temples, white cliffs and the sea of San Leone: the itinerary we recommend to our guests, with real travel times from the loft.

Day 1 — The Valley of the Temples and Agrigento

MORNING	Valley of the Temples (7 min by car): arrive at opening time to enjoy the Temple of Concordia in the best light, without crowds. Don't miss the Kolymbethra Garden, a historic citrus grove curated by FAI inside the Valley.
LUNCH	Back in San Leone (10 min): a seafood lunch with a sea view at one of the promenade restaurants.
AFTERNOON	Agrigento old town (15 min): via Atenea, the Monastery of Santo Spirito (try the nuns' sweet couscous), the hilltop cathedral.
EVENING	Back in San Leone: aperitif and dinner on the Falcone-Borsellino promenade, a 12-minute walk from the loft.

Day 2 — The sea: San Leone and Scala dei Turchi

MORNING	San Leone beach, 10 minutes on foot: golden sand and gently sloping waters, perfect for families too.
AFTERNOON	Scala dei Turchi (20 min by car): the famous white marl cliff. Tip: go after 6 pm, when the crowds thin out and the light turns golden.
EVENING	Granita and a stroll to the San Leone marina, or a seafood dinner with a sea view.

Day 3 — Punta Bianca and the flavours of Sicily

MORNING	Punta Bianca reserve (~25 min by car, last stretch on a dirt road): chalk-white cliffs over crystal-clear water, the wild, uncrowded alternative to Scala dei Turchi. On the way back, stop at Porto Empedocle for the statue of Inspector Montalbano.
LUNCH	Lunch in San Leone: a sea-view restaurant on the promenade, for the last fresh fish of the holiday.
AFTERNOON	One last swim at San Leone or a stroll to the marina before departure.

Practical tips

- Sky Suite's reserved parking space lets you move freely: every stop in this guide is within a half-hour drive.
- Summer: book the evening entrance to the Valley of the Temples — the illuminated temples are unforgettable.
- Spring: almond blossoms in the Valley (January-February) and the Kolymbethra Garden at its peak.
- San Leone's beach and promenade are a 10-12 minute walk: leave the car at the residence in the evening.
